

METROPOLITAN DEVELOPMENT HOUSING AGENCY DIVERSITY BUSINESS ENTERPRISE DIRECTORY (Updated Dec. 6, 2024) The DBE Directory is a resource reference tool. In some cases, it will be necessary to determine whether a DBE's certification status is current. Therefore, we recommend contacting the DBE to confirm their current certification. In addition, users of the Directory should determine the firm's capability to perform or enter into a contract. Also, Users should not use the directory for unsolicited advertising, spam, or any other unauthorized use. *Note: The "Certification Expiration Date" is based on the latest Certificate of Certification and BAO Approval Letter submitted to MDHA. However, these DBEs are listed in their respective certification or approval agencies directory as "Certified or Approved." *Self-identified: Companies listed in the Directory as "Self-Identified" have provided information that supports their claim of MBE, WBE, SBE, or SDVBE. While these companies do not have DBE certifications with one of MDHA's recognized certification agencies, we accept their self-identification status based on the information they provide regarding ethnicity, gender, and annual sales. MDHA encourages these businesses to seek official certification and provides assistance to help "self-identified" companies become certified.
