

MDHA's Resident Services Department in partnership with Black Mental Health Village and the Family Safety Center presents

It's OK to ask for help.

Residents of all ages are invited to a free lunch featuring candid conversations about the following topics:

- Domestic violence prevention
- Anti-bullying
- Mental health treatment options

11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Lunch provided

Tuesday, March 11
MDHA Amenities Center
620 Dew St.

Wednesday, March 12
Edgehill Apartments Community Room
1277 12th Ave. S.

Friday, March 14
J. Henry Hale Apartments Community Room
1433 Jo Johnston Ave.

Metro Office of Family Safety

Where Hope and Healing Begin

The Metropolitan Development and Housing Agency (MDHA) does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, color, national origin, religion, disability or any other legally protected status in admission to, access to, or operations of its programs, services, or activities. For assistance with language interpretation or other accommodation or service, call 615-252-8527. For TTY services, call 615-252-8599.

